FROUP OF ATHLETICS AND BROWNS IN PRACTICE AT SPORTSMAN'S PARK

Jack Dunn of New York is temporarily the leader of the National League batsmen, with the fat percentage of .400. The real honors on the season's work go to Frank Chance, who is whacking them out for a . M showing.

Only thirteen men are hitting over .300, Odwell being a newcomer in the ranks of honor. Wagner has made more hits than any other player and Huggins has scored the most rune. St. Louis leads in team batting. New York second, while the Reds lead in extra bases. Wagner is the star individual slugger, and Shay leads the base runners on a percentage basis. Four pitchers have as yet made no er rors. Warner heads the catchers and Kelley the first basemen. Raymer tops the second basemen and McCormick the third sackers. Brain leads the shortstops and also the outfielders. New York leads in team fielding, Pittsburg second. Finherty and McGinnity have the most remarkable pitching records. The figures:

VING OF THE GREAT HART-FREEDMAN FEUD. BEGINNING OF THE GREAT

Some days ago when President Hart of the Chicago Club was accused of being a second Andrew Freedman because he had protested Umpire Gus Moran and had dechared that this unipire should never of ficiate in a game on the Chicago ground in again so long as he. Mr. Hart, was president of the club, he was guilty of show all ing more anger than at any time in his baseball career.

1. is known that the relations between sol Mr. Hart and Mr. Freedman had been the Th fimit of noncordiality for some years previous to Mr. Freedman's retirement from the game, and when Mr. Hart was accused of indulging in the same practices and with the same spirit that marked the cused of indulging in the same practice and with the same spirit that marked the connection of Mr. Freedman with the National League, his anger knew no bounds. It came nearer being an insuit to the general president than any sinuder that even had been uttered against him, and up to the time the Reds left Chicago he had not recovered from the shot.

It is not generally known that the unfriendly feeling that existed between Mr. Hart and Mr. Freedman had its beginning in a present that Mr. Hart made to Mr. Freedman in a spirit of friendliness. It was in the early period of Mr. Freedman's career as a magnate that the New York club was in sore straits for a catcher. Mr. Hart had more backstops than he needed so he kindly offered Mr. Freedman one of them. The offer was gindly accepted and Mr. Hart sent Bill Schriver on to Jackson-ville, where the Giants were in training. Two days later Mr. Hart was looking at a time card to see if Bill had joined the Giants, when he received a telegram which read: "Take back your present. Schriver demonstrated in twenty minutes that he is a counterfeit."

Mr. Freedman thought that Mr. Hart was kidding him; hard feeling ensued and grew until it became an open rupture between the two magnates—a rupture the never was healed.
